2. They must deposit with the Galleries at least 25% of the amount of their bid in cash, or the full amount thereof if demanded by the Galleries.
3. Such deposit, in the event of the purchaser's failure to consummate the sale in accordance with the conditions here set forth, shall belong to the Galleries as liquidated damages.
4. A deposit shall apply to all purchases made at this sale by the depositor and not to any one particular lot.
5. Payment must be made in full and evidenced by a receipted bill before goods will be delivered. In no case will separate items be delivered until the bill for all items purchased is paid.
6. The Galleries' record of sales shall be final.
7. Goods must be removed at the expense and risk of the purchaser within five days (Sundays and holidays excepted) following the conclusion of this sale. If not removed within that time, they remain at the sole risk of the purchaser.
8. Goods which are unclaimed within the time specified in the preceding paragraph may, at the discretion of the Galleries, be resold at public or private sale without further notice. The cost of such resale, including any deficiency attending the same, shall be charged against the defaulting purchaser. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Galleries to enforce the original contract without such resale at his discretion.
9. In case of a dispute between two or more bidders regarding the final bid, the article shall at once be put up and resold.
10. Any claim of error in identity or lot number of an item sold must be made immediately and the item at once put up for resale.
11. No warranty is given as to the number of stones in or the condition, quality or weight of goods listed in this catalogue.
12. In listing in this catalogue articles containing pearls, no attempt is made to distinguish between the oriental and the cultured types and, therefore, no warranty is given.

14. Claims arising from error in catalogue description must be made at the Auction Sales Department, Executive Office of The Provident Loan Society of N. No other claims will be recognized after the delivery of the goods.
15. The highest bid shall in all cases be accepted as the value upon which claims for loss or damage shall be based.
16. The consignor of goods in this sale expressly reserves the right to withdraw any lot from sale before the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, if the bid is not acceptable, or to adjourn the sale where the bidding generally is of an unsatisfactory character.
- 17(a). All articles purchased at this sale will be subject to payment of the New York City Sales Tax of two per cent (2%) on the purchase price except where the purchaser signs the certificate required by law that the articles were purchased for resale.
(b). All articles purchased at this sale will be subject to payment of the Federal Excise Tax, as fixed in the Revenue Act of 1941 as amended by the Revenue Act of 1943, except where purchased by a dealer for resale.

NOTICE

The prices quoted to you by the attendants displaying the jewelry, are merely estimates of the probable auction sale values. They are based upon prices received in recent sales on similar types of articles.

The quotations do not represent prices which must be obtained. Nor is it at all certain that, if you bid the amount quoted to you, it will be sufficient to secure an article. The bidding always starts at figures substantially below the quoted ones, and some items realize more than the quotations while some do not reach them.

For detailed information, appraisal and advice, please consult one of the Provident Loan Society representatives, who are seated at the table in the exhibition room.

THE PROVIDENT LOAN SOCIETY OF NEW YORK

THE GALLERIES WILL BID FOR YOU IF YOU WISH

Prospective purchasers who are unable to attend Provident Loan auction sales, or who do not care to bid personally, will find it convenient to place order bids with the Galleries. Order bids may be placed at any time prior to the sale of the article desired.

Those who avail themselves of this service are assured that the Galleries will serve their best interests at all times. An order bid authorizes the Galleries to bid the full amount only if forced to do so by competing bids. It does however, establish the maximum the bidder is willing to pay. The Galleries will endeavor to fulfill the bidder's order at the lowest figure consistent with the bidding.

A representative of The Provident Loan Society of New York is in attendance throughout the exhibition and sale to advise with prospective purchasers. He will submit auction sale estimates for any article in the sale on request.

A deposit of 25% is required by the Galleries as a condition of acceptance of an order bid.
